

DONOR PRIVACY POLICY

Operation Breakthrough, Inc. subscribes to the Donor Bill of Rights of the Association of Fundraising Professionals and does not, therefore, trade, sell or share any information (addresses, email addresses or phone numbers) about our donors. We will also never send donors mailings on behalf of other organizations. Operation Breakthrough does not share any donations received by donors with organizations or businesses. Testimonials and recognition will be published only with the approval of the donor. Those who share information through our website to make online donations can also be assured that their identity will be handled confidentially by Operation Breakthrough staff.

If you do not wish to be on our mailing list, please contact the Development Department at (816) 329-5259 or send a written request to: Operation Breakthrough, Development, 3039 Troost, Kansas City, MO 64109 and we will remove your name promptly.

If you do not wish to receive unsolicited e-news or other announcements sent by our email marketer, please click on the "Unsubscribe" at the bottom on the received message.
