RELEASE FOR BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION

DISCLOSURE

Operation Breakthrough, Inc. is required by law to perform background checks on individuals who work with or around children enrolled here. This applied to volunteers as well as employees. These checks include a background investigation performed by the state of Missouri, and our own check into the following areas: child abuse or neglect, criminal history, driving record (if appropriate to your duties) and lists of sexual offenders. Our check is nationwide. A finding of any history of criminal conviction for a sexual offense or child abuse will preclude you from working here. Other matters may prevent you from working here until we conduct further investigation and clear your history with the state of Missouri. If there are any questionable findings, we will meet with you to provide a copy of the findings, discuss those findings and give you're the opportunity to dispute or explain the findings.

RELEASE OF INFORMATION

In consideration of my application to work here as an employee or volunteer, I authorize Operation Breakthrough, Inc. and its background investigation service, to procure and review a consumer report which may include information regarding my criminal or child abuse background, my inclusion in any jurisdiction's registry of sexual offenders, driving record (if appropriate to my duties), and other matters which reflect on my character and general reputation. This report may be compiled from credit bureaus, court records, department of motor vehicles, past employers or volunteer service records, educational institutions, governmental license and registration entities, business or personal references, and any other source required to verify information I have voluntarily supplied. I understand that I may request a complete and accurate disclosure of the nature and scope of the background verification; to the extent such investigation includes information bearing on my character, general reputation, personal characteristics or mode of living.
